

Scott Hill has performed with orchestras, choirs, instrumentalists, and vocalists throughout Canada, United States, Europe, and South America as a soloist and chamber musician. As a member of the Alturas Duo, collaborator and soloist, Mr. Hill has premiered more than seventy-five pieces of new music, has won the Chamber Music America/ASCAP Adventurous Programming award, has been awarded grants from New Music USA, the Chilean Arts Council, the Canada Arts Council and is also a laureate winner of the 2020 World Folk Vision awards. He has collaborated with a wide range of instrumentalists and ensembles including bandoneon player, Daniel Binelli, Cuarteto Latinoamericano, the Fairfax Symphony Orchestra, Callisto Quartet, East Coast Contemporary Ballet and the Voce Choir of Hartford. He has recently premiered music by Leo Brouwer, David MacBride, Javier Farias, as well as Karina and Javier Contreras.

He is a former Play USA/Carnegie Hall Lead Teaching Artist and Suzuki qualified guitar instructor. Mr. Hill earned an Honors Bachelor of Arts degree in music from Lakehead University, a Master in Guitar Performance and a Graduate Professional Diploma in chamber performance from the Hartt School of Music.